FEATURED GUEST & KEYNOTE SPEAKER

The Honorable Kenneth J. Braithwaite

77th Secretary of the Navy

31st U.S. Ambassador to the Kingdom of Norway

Rear Admiral, U.S. Navy (Ret.)

He flew Navy P-3 patrol aircraft over the Pacific and Arctic, tracking adversary submarines during the Cold War. Decades later, he became the first Navy flag officer to become a confirmed Secretary of the Navy, after previously serving as U.S. Ambassador to Norway.

Ambassador Braithwaite will speak about geopolitical pressures around the globe, with particular focus on China and the national security challenges it presents, as well as political gridlock in Washington and how events abroad are affecting the United States.

A MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIRMAN

DAVID BUCKTA · CHAIRMAN, RCCC · COMMANDER, U.S. NAVY (RET.)

"We are honored to have Ambassador Braithwaite with us for an evening of good company and shared patriotism. It is also our last gathering before November 3, and what we raise goes to promoting our candidates in the final stretch. Fill a seat, or fill a table, and be part of it."
